

Bio for Laurie Nadeau

A native Montreal resident, Laurie moved to Toronto and is a graduate of the University of Toronto.....She has been a career entrepreneur who has found success in “balancing” work/life.

Starting nearly 30 years ago with Office Assistance, Laurie was bitten by the “entrepreneurial” bug and started Permanent Solutions in the mid 1980’s. Her next venture was opening HR Vision in 1995. After selling HR Vision to The KAS Group of Companies in 2003 to move with her family to Palm Springs, California, Laurie continued to develop her career in HR recruitment working as Manager of Recruitment and Retention for a 3000 staff hospital and then as Director of Business Development for NBC Television. Coming back to Canada, she returned to HR Vision to regroup and refocus the company on office placement.

Laurie is currently the GTA Team Leader for Aplin Recruiting and can be reached at (905) 802-6562.

Laurie’s career accomplishments include:

- 2X nominee as Canadian Woman Entrepreneur of the Year
- Athena award nominee
- Founder and President of Winewomen operating several chapters in Canada and the US
- Board of Directors of the Oakville, Grimsby Chambers of Commerce
- Programs Chair for the Burlington Chamber of Commerce
- Board of Directors of Food for Life
- Board of Directors of Canada Post Corporation (representing small business)
- Vice President of The Ontario Wine Society

Laurie currently lives with her family in Burlington, Ontario.
