

Doug Barnes – personal bio

Doug Barnes joined the Board of Directors of Food for Life in 2014. Doug is a highly motivated and results oriented Supply Chain Professional with over 30 years' experience, ranging from store level to head office. Doug possesses a unique combination of leadership experience and process optimization with the proven ability to envision and implement strategies that support continuous improvements to service levels, inventory, customer satisfaction and sales targets. During his career Doug has worked for three of Canada's largest grocery retailers. Doug attended Sheridan College where he earned a Sales and Marketing diploma and is currently working towards his CCLP designation.

Doug was born in Burlington, raised in Niagara Falls and returned to Burlington in 1988 where he lives with his wife Cherylan, and 15 year old son. In his free time Doug enjoys golfing, biking, cooking and staying physically active.

Doug's has previously volunteered with Burlington Youth Soccer, Boy Scouts of Canada and served on the Board of Directors of Halton Condominium Corporation #58.